

The grid below details the types of corrections we can and cannot make to manuscripts that have been published online.

	Correction will be made <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Minor corrections will be acknowledged through the addition of a footnote statement to the article's front page Major corrections will be acknowledged through the publication of an additional linked Correction Notice
	Correction request will be investigated and may be permitted
	No correction will be made

Website metadata (where information about the article is different from PDF)
Article title
Author name(s) if different to print copy
Section heading
Special Issue title error online only
Error in article HTML rendering if different to the pdf
Error in supplemental data
Error in article category heading or running head
Article published online (changing both XML and PDF versions of the article)
Minor corrections (acknowledged by addition of footnote to first page of article)
Author name spelt incorrectly
Affiliation incorrect at time of submission
Error in ORCID IDs
Missing ORCID IDs (not supplied on submission)
Error in copyright line
Error in correspondence details NB for correspondence details only – not affiliation

Missing text or typographical amendment (meaning not changed)
Amendment to tables, figures and appendices (meaning not changed)
Poor figure quality
Funding information is missing
Individual's name missing or incorrect in acknowledgements section
Error in online-only supplemental data
Correction to reference list
Article published online (changing both XML and PDF versions of the article)
Major corrections (acknowledged by linked Correction Notice)
Title change
Error in the received or accepted dates
Missing text or typographical amendment (meaning changed)
Error in data
Error in medical terms
Amendment to tables, figures and appendices (meaning changed)
Figure source or permission information missing
Conflict of interest statement missing or incorrect
Amendment to reference list updating cross-references in special issues
Adding references, changing citations to new reference
Request to remove/add author NB We follow the authorship guidelines outlined by COPE
Affiliation has changed since submission	